PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Let us all get out of the winter doldrums and get ready to attend two great meetings in March and April followed by a greatly resurrected All British Car Show at the Renaissance Center in May. Details on these events are herewith enclosed. Do plan here and now to join with your fellow members for some rollicking good times.

Regretfully the bus trip to Atlantic City had to be aborted. A total of 6 members signed on for the trip. In the best interest of the club I saw fit not to obligate the club for a full bus when less than 1/8 capacity was booked.

Lest I forget the above three events will be followed by the Concours d' Elegance show to be held once again on the spacious grounds of Brandywine Hospital. You will all be hearing more about this from our Concours Chairman, Rudy Horwitz in the very near future. This is a premier show not to be missed. If you do not have a car to enter just come on out and join in the festivities. Oh yes, please do not forget there will be a driven class for all you diehards who enjoy your Jags on a daily basis. Once again something for each of you to participate in and enjoy.

Your Board of Directors and Committee Chairmen are hard at work. Let us give them our full support.

Jack e. sanft

Letters to Editor

Dear Freinds,

Greetings fellow club members, it gives me great pleasure and sorrow to tell you that things are going great! The great part is I have started a new business and believe it or not business is booming, so much so it gives me little time to put 100% into the "Jaguar's Purr". Therefore I must resign from the position of Editor of the newsletter, believe me its has not been an easy decision to relinquish my postion as your editor. It has been a very rewarding and educational experience. I hope and wish the next Editor to bring this newsletter to new levels of greatness and honor in the world of Jaguardom.

This is my final issue of the Jaguar's Purr, I'm pleased to inform you that Ron Klein has offered to take over the news letter "Thanks Ron and good luck". Please make a note of his mailing address and kindly send your ads, messages, or whatever to Ron he will greatly appreciate all if any input to the newsletter. Lets show him that you do care about this publication and send him you inserts.

Thanks for 5 great years as your editor!

See Ya round,

Cliff Hall
