The Prez Sez

It was nice to see so many DVJC members drive the 900 miles to attend the Jaguar Carolina Club Concours D'Elegance at Hilton Head. Roy and Sydia Anderson, V.P. Joe Federico, Reggie and Paulette Ray, Terry and Karen Lippincott, and Kurt and Pat Rappold were there to represent DVJC.

Many other JCNA members that we have known over the past three decades were also there. They included Tom Palasi and son from the Florida Jaguar Club who served as the head judge. Karen Miller, associate editor of the Jaguar Journal and Northeast Director, showed three new XJ6s and an XJR display model. Gary and Sue Hagopian from JANE as well as our other Northeast Director were in attendance as well. Gary was working as a judge, as I was also. V.P. Joe Federico and Reggie Ray also served the cause as judges as well.

The actual show was held next to the famous Hilton Head Lighthouse on a beautiful point of land just off the golf course. There were 45 total Jaguars being shown among which were a 1932 Swallow Wolsely Hornet, a 1949 MKV Saloon, four XK 120 and 140s, eleven XKEs, two MKIIs, a 68S type, one MKX, and nine XJ6s.

The entire Carolina Jaguar Club and Concours Chairman Dave Eckrote deserve a lot of credit for a well-done show. They were given lots of support from Jaguar which may be a pleasant sign for the future.

What's New

JAGUAR APPOINTS NEW SALES & MARKETING VICE PRESIDENT

November 29, 1994, Mahwah, New Jersey -- Gerald M. Frick, Ford Division's Executive Assistant for Dealer Relations, has been appointed Vice President, Sales and Marketing, of Jaguar Cars.

Frick will be responsible for managing and coordinating sales and marketing activities in the United States. He will report to Jaguar President Michael H. Dale and is scheduled to assume his new duties effective December 1, 1994.

A native of Nebraska, Frick joined Ford Motor Company in 1970 as a Vehicle Distribution Analyst. He subsequently spent several years in sales and distribution analysis, district sales and merchandising.

"Gerry brings a wealth of experience to Jaguar," Dale said in announcing the appointment. "With almost 25 years in the automotive industry, Gerry has held key positions from distribution and merchandising to dealer affairs."

Frick replaces Richard Beattie, Jaguar's Vice President of Sales and Marketing since January 1993. Beattie (who is the subject of a separate announcement issued by the Ford Motor Company) has been appointed Executive Director of Ford's Rental Distribution and Business Operations.

Said Dale: "Richard's leadership has been a tremendous asset to Jaguar. In his two years with the company, Richard's work with the dealer body and the role he has played within the management team has been instrumental in helping Jaguar improve its share of the prestige car market."

In 1981, Frick was appointed Ford Division General Field Manager for the San Jose District. Two years later, in 1983, he became Assistant District Sales Manager for the Memphis District, and in 1985 was named Ford Division Regional Marketing Manager for the Northeast Region.

He was appointed Director of Commercial Vehicle Marketing for Ford of Europe in 1990, before returning to the United States as Owner Relations Manager for Ford Parts and Service Division and subsequently for the General Sales and Service Office.
