cars will be the marque in 1998.

The DCCC-HCCP fall meet was held again in October on the 19th. You really had to think positive to attend as we saw rain drops on the windshield while enroute. The New Jersey shore was getting a Nor'easter and believe it or not, we had no rain at the show. Our club plan was to meet at the gate at 9:30 AM and drive into the park together. We had my '67 E, Frank Steinberg's white 120 coupe, Valdez's blue E coupe, new member Mike Schwartz's Series 2 2+2 and the Jamie Frieman XK120M OTS. Of the 25 sports cars, without a doubt, Jamie's 120M took the first place trophy over second place '57 Mercedes, 3rd place '72 Triumph, 4th place Austin Healy and 5th place '52 Porsche. Jack Donahue in his now famous Series 1 XJ6 won first place in production sedans, class 19, 1970-76. We all had a good time, even though the weather was a bit chilly. The fall foliage around the campus was outstanding!

With the holiday season upon us, the club's holiday party on Saturday December 20 will be here shortly. We hope that everyone interested in attending this affair has made reservations. Speaking for all the officers of the DVJC, we wish everyone a very happy holiday season and wish next year be even better for you and your Jaguars!

I want to thank you for all the participation in this year's activities. The help is appreciated and I hope 1998 will be even better! We will be re-nominating club officers for two-year terms again this fall.

Happy Motoring!

Kurt
