The Prez Sez September 2009

Labor Day is the latest it can be this year and to me, marks the start of the the Fall Season. The “Other Events” column is full, occupying every weekend in September and into October. I will be attending the Events listed in the August Purr in the Prez Sez article. By the time you read this, I will have attended the Nations Capitol Owners Club’s Concour’s d’Elegance. They certainly had organized an attractive venue last year that rivals any Concours I have attended- and the Pittsburgh club is always impressive! I think a key element for any Concours, is to provide a dinner the night before. It brings together the group of participants for “camaraderie before competition” and in addition, hosting of our out of town folks. It’s something I’d like to add to our Concours in 2010.

I think the success in attracting new members to our Club is providing a good mix of social activities as well as competitive ones. As I look at the scheduled events that I listed in last months Purr, I noticed we lack direct involvement. You need someone, preferably one of the officers, to form a group to attend an event. Radnor Hunt is two weeks away followed by Buckingham. Then an out of town affair called MG’s on the Rocks, located in a very nicely shaded park-like setting, that encourages all British Marqueses. I plan on attending all of them with the hope that some of you will be interested in joining me.

The October schedule features an event to the America on Wheels Museum. The event starts with a gathering for lunch before departing to the Museum and a return for dinner for those that choose. Gerry Kunkle has organized this event and has a Flier enclosed in this issue with all the details. Please make every effort to support this DVJC sponsored event.

The By-laws committee has approved the final amended version of the Delaware Valley Jaguar Club Inc. Constitution and By-Laws. It is presented to the membership in this edition of the Purr for your review. All questions and comments should be directed to Brian Craig, Chairman of the By-Laws Committee at, 215- 483- 5861 or e-mail bhc166@aol.com.

Under the current By-Laws a ballot must be submitted to the membership to record their vote. This ballot will appear in both the October Purr and November Purr, in the event that an issue is lost or misplaced. Details will be on the ballot for processing and a deadline for voting will be 30 November.

Questions and comments regarding the ballot should be directed to Brian Craig.

terms that the Interested Person generally extends to others. Moreover, the DVJC anticipates that any such acquisition may be on terms that are more advantageous to the DVJC than those generally extended by the Interested Person to others. Additionally, the transaction must be approved as set forth in Section 2.

2. Whenever the DVJC is considering acquiring goods or services from, or entering into a transaction with, an Interested Person, the details of the relationship of the officer or director to the transaction (including his or her interest in the Interested Person, if other than officer or director) shall be disclosed in writing to the Board of Directors. # Roving Reporter

By: Michael Tate September 2009

Would you believe it, the greatest driver of Formula 1 never to win the World Championship, Sir Sterling Moss is 80 years old on September 17th. Sir Sterling was also a great Jaguar driver, racing such cars as the C-Type, D-Type and even Mk V11's. He really was part of Jaguar's development. I for one have feasted on his exploits on the track and some of his rumored activities behind closed doors. So I am hoping that when I meet other club members at Watkins Glen this coming weekend (9/11 thru 9/13) that the vintage races will feature some historic vehicles that made the excitement and the news in the 1950/1960's. I will report in the October Purr.

Since the commercial loan agreement was announced last month, things have not got any easier for JLR. Tata Motors Ltd posted a loss of $67.8 million for the three months ending June 30. Vehicles shipped to dealers declined 52% in the quarter to 35,900. At the same time these results were being announced there was the thought that auto makers should rethink their luxury lines. Once thought to be recession proof, sales of all luxury makes declined 21% last year and 15.6% this year and the question posed "is this because of the economic downturn or a long term change in consumer spending?" It is suggested that times dictate "THRIFT".

Jaguar, as we know, is driving its products up market. It has dropped the X-Type sedan and the X-Type Wagon, both excellent products, and has announced no replacement. Its product plan appears to be to make the XJ the top of the line sedan, the XF sedan the mid-size offering, and the XK both coupe and OTS the sporting model. Each product offers a base model and also a supercharged "R" model. I have owned an R of the XJ but came to the conclusion that there is nowhere to use its power without being heavily fined. Its hard to use the power of the base model, so has Jaguar got it wrong?

They released the X-Type wagon in the USA but never promoted it. Those who see it remark on its outstanding looks. It is also roomy and powerful. Last year they withdrew it from the USA. Now Cadillac has just introduced an up-scale wagon and BMW, Mercedes, and others have one. Then there is all the Crossovers aiming at the same market. Perhaps returning to their heritage where they made their name and were successful could be the right thing to do. They do not want to be a mass producer but fill an elite niche where the name "Jaguar" is said in hushed tones. The emerging markets of India and China maybe their salvation.

Part of the future could be a successor for the immortal E-Type. You will recall that there was a lot of talk about the F-Type and a concept model was shown at the Detroit Auto show in 2000. Everybody raved about it, a real winner...so Ford scrapped it. Since then there has been periodic speculation that Jaguar will proceed with such a lower cost sports car and Ratan Tata has said he would like to see it. So in the October edition of Automobile under the headline "Jaguar's Big Leap" they say that the company's future product plan includes a new sports car that will be more affordable than the XK. The XE is a compact sports car and the spiritual successor to the E-Type. They quote a senior manager as saying "The idea is to build a lightweight front engine two plus seater that will initially be a canvas top roadster followed by a coupe. It will be aimed at the Boxster Cayman and the 911". The magazine shows a rendering of the car which looks very like a downsized version of to-days XK from the front.

The magazine also says that though still in the planning stage the company is building a business case to build a limited batch of re-created classics like the C and D-types, priced between $250,000 and $600,000. They say the XE could be on the market by 2013 and the first of the re-created models, the D-type, by 2012. Let's hope it all comes true.

Meanwhile I am off to the Glen to smell the fumes of burning rubber and ancient exhausts.
