The Prez Sez December 2010

I thank you for your support in electing me as your President and the opportunity to serve you for another two years. It will be the start of my third, two year term in Office. With the continued help of my dedicated Staff and the cooperation of you, the members, I look forward to an increase in activity and growing membership for 2011.

On Sunday, December 5,th forty-eight of our members attended our Annual Holiday Party in the Weidner Room of the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club. The room was decorated in the Holiday spirit with a large decorated Christmas tree adjacent which served as a backdrop for each member to have their photo taken by our prolific photographer and Webmaster, Brian Craig. A large fireplace, supporting our banner –“Welcome to the DVJC.” provided the perfect ambiance for celebrating the culmination of another year.

During the Meal our traditional “Chicken Box” was circulated by Ann Perry among those present, to introduce themselves and perhaps add to our treasury the princely sum of $1 dollar, for not driving a Jaguar to the Party!

A Business meeting was called to order by the President to elect those Officers on the Ballot, by the members present, in addition to those that had mailed them to the Director of Membership in advance.

The Officers were elected to a two year term in office as follows:

President :	Charles Olson
Vice President	Mike Tate (elected after being appointed V.P. early in 2010)
Secretary	Clara Saxton
Treasurer	Gerry Kunkle
Director	Tom Jones
Director	Rich Rosen
Director of Membership	Ann Perry

I wish to thank those incumbents that served on the Executive Committee for the past two years, making my job successful as your President. My gratitude is extended to each of you and to the Supporting Staff!

This is Rich Rosen's 1st term in Office as a Director to work in conjunction with Tom Jones, to arrange a variety of events to supplement our Sanctioned events for 2011. There will be an effort to encourage our members to suggest events that they would like to see scheduled.

That concluded the Business portion of the Party and followed by the recognition of those winners in our Sanctioned events for 2010, that were in attendance.

As I was gathering the information for the winners, I noticed one particular person had participated in every sanctioned event and recorded a first or second place. I decided to establish a new award called the President's Trophy for presentation at the Party to honor the accomplishment.

It was my pleasure to present the award, a 16" version of the Jaguar Leaper, to Steve Kress & Betty Kress for their winning accomplishments in 2010.

I'm hoping it might act as incentive for other members to compete for that reason! The Trophy will be handed down to next year's winner, or retained by the previous winner, if they continue to qualify.

Photos taken at the Party by Brian Craig are disseminated throughout the Purr and can be viewed independently by going to: www.picasaweb.google.com/BCsPhotos95.

To create interest for everyone, a Raffle was conducted by Ann Perry. As an incentive for ticket sales, almost two dozen items were beautifully decorated and donated by Pauline Craig and placed on the tables! Tickets sales were brisk as the attendees inspected the items to be raffled off. After the cutoff time for sales, Pauline and Ann attached a companion ticket stub to each item while other activities were taking place. Rather than having a drawing and announcing the winner, the attendees were given the opportunity to approach the table and match up their ticket to the one placed on the item.

Following the Raffle a “Live” Auction was conducted by Ann. An 18x24 framed picture of a Jaguar animal relaxing on a large Rock was very popular and Betty Kress outbid for the prize. Several other cleaning and polishing materials were won by Christina Bajkowsky. There were two books, one on an XK8 and another on Jaguars won by Gerry Kunkle. The Auction was very successful and I'm sure it'll be considered an event for our party next year.

Our first event for 2011 was a repeat of last years popular venue at Longwood Gardens, called “Lights Out”! A “Flyer” for the event is inserted in this issue for detailed arrangements.

Mike Tate our newly elected Vice President and Roving Reporter, is promoting a book prize, as an incentive for our current members to enlist new ones. I would bring to your attention his article in this issue or the previous issue under “The Roving Reporter.”

We now have a new team of Directors! Tom Jones the incumbent and newly elected, Rick Rosen. They Plan to establish a means to effectively survey the membership for events to supplement the JCNA sanctioned events. The various categories suggested, but not limited to, are as follows:

Family oriented events: Phila. Zoo, Camden Aquarium, Baseball games, Longwood Gardens.

Informal rally's: Restaurant destinations, Picnics or sponsored events.

Educational Seminars: Jaguar restoration, Judging classes, shop tours, etc.

Cultural:— Museums , Historical Sites, AACA Museum at Hershey, Simeone Museum.

Social events: Holiday Party, etc.

Before concluding, a special announcement was made by Dave Hutchison on behalf of the Simeone Museum:

Last February, Ragtops & Roadsters helped the Simeone Foundation Museum in Philadelphia assemble a collection of British cars for the 2010 BMTA National Meeting. It was well received by the public and the museum and we are pleased to announce that this winter we will again support the “Best of Britain” to be held from 2/19/11 - 3/20/11. While we plan again to bring together an interesting collection of British sports and racing cars we also plan to celebrate the 50th anniversary of one of the most iconic sports cars ever built ...the Jaguar E-Type. We are currently looking cars to review for the 2011 Best of Britain exhibit. If your British car has an interesting history or is a vintage racer, and you would like to have your car invited to be part of this event please send a short biography about your car with couple of pictures to us here at the shop at info@ragtops.com.

Please contact me with any questions.

Thanks for your support!

ONLY WINNERS WIN....AND JAGUAR ARE DOING IT

IMAGINARY THOUGHTS

It has been very interesting the past few weeks. Having been laid low by a bout of Pancreatitis I have had plenty of time to think. The mind gets into some interesting scenarios. I have mentally sold my Jags a number of times. The first to go was my 1967 420 but then I got my January 2011 copy of Hemmings Sports & Exotic Car magazine and there on page 80 under the headline "British Grandeur In The Form Of A Highly Elusive Cat." they took five pages to extol this car finishing up with the following :- "You look at any car from the late 1960's, and not many of them have survived. The 420 is a sleeper. It's a real head turner. Nobody knows what they are. It's a lovely car, fast and pretty, better to drive than a Mark 2" So how could I think of selling it when I read that, especially as mine is the rarest of these cars being one of only 79 with overdrive and a manual gearbox brought into this country. I wonder how many are left. The last sleeper I sold was my XK150S Roadster in 2002 for $60K and they are now selling for $130K!

So perhaps the car to shed was the X-Type Wagon. But the handicap on such a move was that this was a gift to my wife on our 50th wedding anniversary. However it's registered in my name and she could be persuaded! It really is a great car and so rare as everyone stops to tell her. She loves it! Perhaps not! But then do we really need two cars and a Classic. So that leaves the XK Coupe which my wife would agree is an extravagance and yes we could get by with the X-Type as long as she could have it when she wanted. Due to my illness I had not driven the XK for 6 weeks being ferried to the doctors and hospitals in the X-type. Yesterday I took a peep in the garage as it was agreed my health was improving. All these thoughts of selling converged and I realized I had been getting light headed and was sicker than I knew. Sell the XK. Nonsense propaganda promoted by my wife. Let it be!

JAGUAR LEAPING AHEAD

So enough of all that so let me tell you of Jaguar's winning ways. The first good news is that they are hiring 1700 new employees. Secondly you will recall that they planned to close one of their three manufacturing facilities, Solihull, Halewood in Liverpool, or West Bromwich in the Midlands. That plan has now been reversed and all three plants will stay in business. So what is the reason for all this? Could it be that JLR's sales are booming????

Yes....revenues are up 43% in the last quarter and it is whispered that JLR has an outside chance of making a $1.6 billion profit in the financial year. What a turnaround.. Carl-Peter Forster, chief executive of Tata Motors commented at a recent dinner on the opportunities for JLR and its brands – including expansion at home and abroad. He said that "currently Jaguar sells a third of what Land Rover sells, but we will fix that. We want to direct Jaguar into a more sporty, torque, forward looking brand" He also admitted Jaguar could expand to a five model range, including a small sports car.

Now if I recall correctly that's a big change of direction. The last plan we all heard was that they were headed up market to take on the likes of Aston Martin! This, I thought, would have been a tough sell against such an established brand which would also have included Ferrari and Maserati. Far better to take on Porsche and that little BMW sports car. Foster thought that Jaguar was one to three years behind with Hybrid cars but the CX-75 electric concept car, unveiled at this year's Paris Motor Show, gave a glimpse of what the company's British developers are capable of. The car is powered by turbine jets and capable of top speeds of over 200mph.

"We were positively overwhelmed by the reaction to the car" Forster said. "We would like to sell it, but it will take up a lot of resources. We have not come to a conclusion yet." As they plot the future they now realize that the company's customer base is now its most diverse ever. China has emerged as JLR's third biggest market and the company is now responsible for 14% of all UK exports to the country. JLR is in talks with a handful of partners about setting up a manufacturing joint venture in the country. The plant would produce around 50,000 cars a year, initially Land Rovers. They also plan to manufacture Land Rovers on a "small scale" in India.

In an interesting aside JLR's human resources director, Des Thurlby, said he had held "pointed" discussions with up to five of the company's best employees urging them to consider moving out of leafy Coventry to China to help the company capitalize on emerging markets. "Those who refused had less chance of being shortlisted for a future top job at the company", Mr Thurlby said. The HR director is adopting the controversial stance because they are struggling to convince its best workers to relocate on typically three year assignments. Those with families were often put off by the upheaval of moving abroad. Now that is most interesting to me as in 1970 my company asked me to move to the USA on a 3 year stint. After a variety of assignments in 1985 (15 years!!!!) I was asked to go to Hong Kong as China was just emerging . In both cases my wife said "OH that would be nice!" We would not have missed the opportunities to live with different cultures. We have no regrets and the children are happy to be here.

THIS AND THAT

So it is good to leave the year with Jaguar on a winning streak. They are making more changes to their management structure and more of this next time. I have enjoyed writing to you every month. If there are any particular subjects you would like me to address let me know. Thank you for electing me Vice President and I will do my best to work with the team to bring you variable and enjoyable programs in 2011. Have a wonderful festive season
