2014 December Breakfast & Business Meeting

A record 33 DVJC members and 20 Jaguars turned out for our December Breakfast and Business Meeting. The new slate of officers for 2015—2016 was unanimously elected at this meeting. Please see page 19 for the current slate of officers. Diners at Andy's Diner were surprised to see such a distinguished group of people and automobiles.

NOTICE—It's time to renew your membership for 2015. The deadline is January 15, 2015, to continue benefits without interruption. The membership fee is $55.00. If all your information is the same as last year please feel free to send a check to Ann Perry made out to DVJC. If any of your information has changed please use the renewal form on page 20. Please remember the membership directory and listing of vehicles owned is shared only with active members.

President's Mewsings January 2015

Happy New Year everyone. Writing this column on New Year's Day is my first official task as President of the Delaware Valley Jaguar Club. My second official task is to welcome Alex Giacobetti (one of the oldest active members of the club) as Vice President and Bill Beible as Treasurer and to thank Clara Saxton (Secretary), Ann Perry (Membership Director), Mike Wolf (Director), and Rich Rosen (Director) for staying on in their respective positions. Most of all, thanks are in order for Charlie Olson, who served as President for the better part of the last decade and who I am sure will remain a key member of the club.

I am looking forward to a very active year with the club which will include celebrating our 50th anniversary and hosting the Jaguar Clubs of North America (JCNA) Annual General Meeting (AGM). Recommended Reading: The November/December 2014 issue of the Jaguar Journal has an article about the AGM written by our own Clara Saxton. The January/February 2015 edition will have the second installment.

Mike Tate has done a great job of organizing the 50th Anniversary Party scheduled for January 18, 2015 (see page 5 in this issue for the flyer), including a wonderful collection of auction items and one of our founding members, Frank Weikel, as guest speaker. YOU MUST SIGN UP IN ADVANCE FOR THIS EVENT so do not hesitate; the party is just over two weeks away as I write this column.

Charlie and I have co-chaired a very active AGM committee (Alex Giacobetti, Clara Saxton, Ann Perry, Kurt Rappold, Mike Tate, Bill Beible, and Gerry Kunkle) in preparation for the event that will span March 19 – 21, 2015. The host hotel for the AGM is the Sheraton Society Hill on Dock Street, right in the heart of the Philadelphia Historic District. Please take a look at the flyer on page 9 and the registration form on page 10. Registration will open on Thursday, March 19 at 2:00pm. The business activities will kick off with a Directors Meeting on Friday March 20 at 8:00am. The social/technical activities will kick off on Friday March 20 with two tech sessions (at 3:00pm and 4:00pm) followed by a Welcome Party at the Simeone Foundation Museum on Friday evening at 7:00pm. The Welcome Party will feature a tour of the museum, a display of about twenty club cars, a Philly style dinner, and maybe a surprise visit by something distinctly Philadelphia in nature. Transportation from and to the host hotel is included. The business meeting for the delegates will be held on Saturday from 9:00am until 3:00pm, followed by two more tech sessions at 3:00pm and 4:00pm. A cocktail reception and silent auction starts at 5:30pm Saturday, followed by the Awards Banquet at 6:30pm.

The Keynote Speaker at the Awards Banquet will be Kim McCullough, Vice President of Marketing for Jaguar/Land Rover North America. The committee is actively seeking sponsors and donors to help offset the cost of the event since the registration fees cover only a fraction of the costs. Without sponsors and donors, the registration fees would be prohibitively expensive for delegates and guests. If you have a small business and would like some exposure at the event through a sponsorship or if you simply want to help the cause with a donation, please contact one of the DVJC officers or directors for sponsorship or donation information. Contact information is available on page 3.

Charlie will continue to chair the Concours d'Elegance at the Oakbourne Mansion as part of the Cars and Motorcycles of England Show on Saturday, May 30, 2015. While we will continue with our competitive driving events (slaloms and rallies), I want to have more low-key driving activities that allow us to get the cars out for relaxing social events. Tours and Gimmick Rallies (there are many forms of these) that challenge your observation skills rather than driving skills may bring out more members.

Recruiting and retaining new members is our biggest challenge as an affiliate club of the JCNA. Recently we have gotten a bump in membership through the Great Britains dealership. They are including a club membership with every new Jaguar they sell. That has a short shelf-life unless we are proactive in attempting to retain them as members. I plan to personally call every new member and welcome them to the club. Part of the conversation will be to promote the advantages of membership, including the opportunity to make new friends, enjoying the use of their car for social and driving events, subscription to the JCNA Jaguar Journal and The Purr, and access to technical information and experts. I feel that the effort will be successful if we retain one-half of the new members after their first year of membership.

The club officers will be meeting on January 17 (the day before the 50th Anniversary Party) to suggest and plan programs for 2015. I will keep you apprised in future columns as the plans develop. In the meantime, plan to attend our Breakfast Socials at Andy's Diner in Conshohocken which generally occur on the third Sunday of the month (see page 16 for the schedule).

It will be an exciting year IF we make it so by participating, volunteering, and communicating. Obviously taking part in and helping to organize events keeps the club alive and vital. Communicating ideas about what turns you on as a club member will keep the club progressive - the more suggestions we have from our members the more effective we can be in making the Delaware Valley Jaguar Club enjoyable for all.

Be Happy. Drive safe. It's a Jaguar kind of day.

Paul Merluzzi

Michael Smyth, President and Chief Operating Officer of The Great Britains Automotive Group, recently met with Cyrus Mistry, the new Chairman of Tata Group, the owners of Jaguar Land Rover. Mike Tate has commented on numerous occasions in The Roving Reporter about the wonderful things Tata Group has done for our favorite marque. We also appreciate all the things Michael Smyth and his organization do to support our club.

Roving Reporter - January 2015

By Michael Tate

SO IT'S PARTY TIME AND THE CLUB HAS NEW OFFICERS

Thank you so very much to all those who answered my request for donations for the two Silent Auctions. One auction at our Party on January 18 and the second at the JCNA AGM in MARCH. All proceeds go to our club funds. I NOW HAVE OVER 100 ITEMS. But do not stop donating as March is two months away,

At the December breakfast meeting, which had a record attendance of 33 members and 20 Jaguars, I was overwhelmed by the generosity of member's donations. Thank you! Also they combined to vote unanimously for the slate of officers for 2015-16 as presented in the December Purr.

This means we have a new President, Paul Merluzzi and Vice President Alex Giacobetti to lead us into 2015 together with new Treasurer Bill Bieble and with Clara Saxton (Secretary), Ann Perry, (Director of Membership), Rich Rosen and Mike Wolf (Both Directors) remaining in their current positions.

Charlie Olson did not contest the vote but will remain as Chairman for our hosting of the JCNA AGM in March and Chair of our 2015 Concours. I plan to work with Charlie so that I can write an article for the Purr acknowledging his time as President of our club. Also I would like to produce an article introducing our new President and Vice President and this will be done. We will also be saying goodbye to Gerry Kunkle as Treasurer who has been a most valuable member of the Executive team. Gerry is so knowledgeable about Jaguar and travels extensively to attend and participate in meetings all over the USA & Canada.. Thank you for all the work you have done for the club and we look forward to continue receiving your valuable input as a club member

Now more on the club's party. The STAR PRIZE you can bid for is ONE WEEK'S USE OF THE NEW F – TYPE donated by Main Line Jaguar. What a treat to have one for a full week. Tak Papariello (GM Main Line) and his wife Lyn will be there to congratulate the winner. So bring cash and your check books to win, I am including a list of items to be auctioned and I have yet to make the split of which items will appear at which auction. You will see there are many exciting and unusual items to win. If you see something specific you would like to bid for let me know and I will make sure it's there.

What a momentous weekend starting Saturday 12-13-14 turned out to be (that consecutive date won't be seen again for Eons). I look forward to seeing you at the William Penn Inn. So far 68 members have paid and signed up and I expect to see the final number about 80 as many members leave it to the last minute. I will be submitting our head count about a week in advance of the event

STOP PRESS

In Queen Elizabeth 2nd New Years Honors List Norman Dewis (94), Jaguar's world renowned test driver and ambassador, has been awarded the Order Of The British Empire (OBE) for services to the motor industry. There is not much of the Empire left but it is a very nice honor for Norman. By the way I am sure the Queen would like it spelt "honour" as per the English dictionary!

The new 007 film Spectre features a special Aston DB10. Also a number of specially and uniquely prepared Range Rover Sport were parked in a JLR parking lot in Germany waiting for shipment for filming when they were stolen. I have to wonder if the "Bad Guys" were involved to get a leg up on James??

My best wishes to you all for 2015.

When is a Jaguar a Jaguar?

by Bob "Where's Bob" De Lucia

While on a recent trip to the UK and the Classic Motor Show at the NEC center in Birmingham, I had a chance to talk to members of the "The Daimler and Lanchester Owners' Club", one of many clubs in the Jaguar section of the hall. I always wondered about my 1991 Jaguar XJ6 VandenPlas, and some particularly odd badging on it. I had a discussion about the "dimples" above my grill (which I later found out I was misstating and were known as "flutes"), and above the boot opening. And that when I lift up my heavy-duty driver's side floor mat, and the original Jaguar driver's side mat, that underneath it is another mat, that clearly is printed "Daimler". Hmm, a mystery.

After discussion with the Daimler club member "expert", we discovered that supposedly my XJ6 was actually a Daimler XJ40 Large Saloon, that was exported to the US. The XJ40 was manufactured between 1986 and 1994. Because of that decade's (1991) Mercedes-Daimler branding in the US, the UK Daimler (part of Jaguar British Leyland at that time) could not be branded a Daimler in the US for legal reasons. He also stated that the Daimler XJ40 Large Saloon was an upgraded version of the 1991 Jaguar XJ6 VandenPlas, with a few more luxury items. Based on a book called "Daimler Century" by Lord Montagu it says that "in the US British Leyland used the "VandenPlas" designation on its flagship models, with the odd result that cars that were recognizably Daimlers, with fluted radiator shells and number plate housings were sold as "Jaguar VandenPlas" models."

Still a mystery as even though limited, everything is branded "Jaguar"....the engine, back-panel with "Jaguar" and "VandenPlas", door jams with "Jaguar" and a leaper on the steering wheel, and the rear-console. Even a leaper on the hood, which looks like it may have been added when imported to the US (not unusual, even later XK8's, etc., have had that added).

So, the question still remains....When is a Jaguar a Jaguar? Or just an "odd" combination? Or should I be looking for a US version of the Daimler club, and entering in British car shows as a Daimler!
